

CREATING RUBRICS

CREATING A RUBRIC FOR MAKING A PRESENTATION

1. Use the following elements for a Making a Presentation rubric:

	LIMITED	DEVELOPING	PROFICIENT	ADVANCED	EXEMPLARY
Uses visuals clearly and effectively.
Communicates and stresses main points.
Body posture projects confidence and authority.
Makes consistent eye contact.
Enunciates clearly with appropriate volume.
Makes minimal pauses and avoids filler words.

2. Add descriptors depicting what students do as they develop the presentation expertise needed to complete the project. Here is an example of criteria for the first element of the rubric:

	LIMITED	DEVELOPING	PROFICIENT	ADVANCED	EXEMPLARY
Uses visuals clearly and effectively.	Visuals not tightly linked to presentation; do not support or clarify main points.		Visuals clarify and illustrate main points.		Highly developed, memorable visuals clarify and illustrate main points; presenter integrates and manages visuals skillfully.

"Creating a Rubric for Making a Presentation" is adapted from materials provided by Sir Francis Drake High School, San Anselmo, California, and Tamalpais Union High School District, Larkspur, California.
